Principal’s Report

I take this opportunity to wish our farming families all the best with the forthcoming harvest.

School life has certainly returned to normal after the successful wool show. We are still awaiting some expenses before a final figure is calculated.

Last Friday we celebrated World Teachers’ Day. This day highlights the excellent work of teachers’ worldwide. I would like to acknowledge the fantastic work that our staff do for our students here at Elliston Area School. Being a teacher is a special profession and very rewarding, yet it is not a job that everyone can do. Thank you to everyone on staff for all your hard work ensuring our students have the very best learning opportunities possible.

Presentation Night is a special celebration in the school calendar that highlights the year’s achievements. Please put Thursday, December 4th in your diary now.

This Thursday, we have Dr. Allen Campbell, our Secondary Australian Curriculum coordinator visiting with staff to give us the latest update.

Remembrance Day celebrations - the Year 7, 8, 9 classes will be organizing this event next week on Tuesday, November 11th at the War Memorial.

Enjoy the week ahead

Principal

Children’s Centre News
- We had a fantastic week with beautiful weather and fun activities.

- We replaced the bamboo fence and have new plants to plant all thanks to Bunnings who donated and delivered the lot!
- We were also informed that we were successful in winning a $10000 grant from Bendigo Bank which will go towards new blinds for our outdoor shade structure.
- The children have loved the story “Goldilocks” so much they have begun acting the story out! Future stars in the making.
- We have noticed at Kindy someone feeding the turtles outside of Kindy time. We ask that if this could be left for the Kindy children only during the term and for people on the roster during the holidays. Thank you!
- We have CaFHS nurse, Pip here on Tuesday who will be conducting the 4 year old health checks for the children who are at Kindy.
- We will be visiting the hospital on Wednesday
- REMINDER! Playgroup as normal this Friday from 10am to 12pm. You are all welcome to join this happy group!

Thank you
