School News

Congratulations to all staff and students on a successful return to Term 1 2022. All students have been participating in face to face learning and remote learning at home and school with enthusiasm and a keenness to discover and achieve. We have one more week of the Remote Learning scenario after which I hope to inform you all that the Department for Education's staggered start has gone to plan and we will resume full face to face classes from the 14th of January 2022.

Relief Bus Drivers

Thank you to Kaye and Grant Rumbelow who have been our Relief bus drivers for the first few weeks of Term 1. We are very lucky to have the opportunity to call on your services.

Absentee School Stream

A reminder to all families that if your child is absent from school, you can notify the front office by using the absentee form on the School Stream app. You can also access the Newsletter and School announcements.

Elliston Master Plan Meeting

Birdseye Studios has been commissioned by Council to develop a Master Plan for Elliston township and Ben and Grace from Birdseye Studios will be in Elliston on Tuesday 15 February to visit Elliston businesses and stakeholders for your input into the development and future vision of the town.

This will help identify key outcomes for the community including recreation facilities, tourism opportunities and overall town amenity.

Can you please let me know if you would like to meet with them on the afternoon of the 15th (no specific time) and if not at your premises, where would best work for you? If you are unable to meet with them, perhaps email me your thoughts?

Please don't hesitate to contact me for further information or clarification.

Have a great day.

Cheers.
