Dates to Remember

Casual Clothes Day
Friday 29th September

Last Day Term 3
Early Dismissal
Friday 29th September

Hello everyone and welcome to week 9.

Congratulations to Ms R Romanowycz and her A grade team and to Mrs Newton and her A Reserve team for winning their Netball Grand finals on Saturday. Congratulations also to Miley Agars, Cedar Richards and Amy Thompson and their Team for also winning their D grade Netball Premiership. Congratulations to you all.

Well done to the U12 Football and B Reserves Netball sides for making the Grand Final and bad luck on the result. You still should be very proud.

Secondary Camp

This morning the Year 7-9 students headed off on their Secondary Camp to Penong and surrounding districts. They have a jam-packed itinerary with many exciting events planned. We wish them all well and look forward to hearing about their adventures.

Excursions

Our Primary students also have an exciting week planned with the R/1 Class visiting the Hospital and Playground, the 2/3 students visiting Lock Area School and the Lock Museum and the 4/5/6 class climbing Mt Wedge.

It is always an exciting time when we are fortunate enough to continue our learning outside the classroom and engage our students in new environments.

Staffing

Ms Bourke is taking LSL in Term 4 and I'm pleased to announce that Jay Dudley will be teaching the 4/5/6 class from Monday to Thursday, with Rosie Romanowycz teaching the class on Friday next Term. We look forward to both teachers bringing their enthusiasm and continuing the energetic learning that has taken place so far this year.

Learning Expo

As you may have seen advertised, Elliston Area School will be holding a Learning Expo next Term as part of the Wool Show celebrations. This event will be in lieu of an end-of-Term 3 Assembly and we look forward to showcasing student work and achievements in the Hall together with the Fleeces, from Saturday the 28th of October through until Friday the 3rd of November. For more details, please see the Learning Expo flyer later in the Newsletter.

We will also hold a Certificate Assembly on the final day of Term 3, Friday the 29th of September.

Interviews

Last Friday each family would have received an Email Broadcast with the details of our Week 10 Parent/Carer requested or Teacher requested interviews. Please complete the online form to secure your preferred interview time.

We look forward to another tremendous week of learning both in and out of the classroom.

Kind Regards
Chad Fleming
Principal

KITTENS OR BUNNIES?

The bunnies are so sweet
They wriggle
Never let them in a sheet
Never let them in a sheet they will start to giggle
The mum is a dam
It's dad is a feral
The mum likes to eat ham
The dad's friend is called Sheri
Kaydee

The kittens may have been a serendipity
But still, cue, cuddle and small
Sweet fluffy and a little toasty
Hiding under a yarn ball

Is my mum a dam or a doe?
I have no idea
She wears a pretty pink bow
And we are each others peer
Talara

Kittens are so cozy
Their eyes are very big
They make me feel dozy
Much cuter than a pig!

Kittens love to excavate
They enjoy eating carrots
They would be a good mate
Much smaller than parrots!

Kittens love fluffy mats
They look adorable when they hop
But especially when in hats
Their ears are just a big flop!
Milla

Kittens are so quiet
You can always admire
You should just buy it
And keep it by the fire

They are always at peace
It's fur is brown
It is never a beast
And they don't like going to town

I love eating grass
So does my mum
I am so so fast
And full of fun

I put my head in the grain bowl
And dig in the garden patch
I am a lot smaller than a foal
Make sure to close my latch
Kiarni

Kittens are so cozy
We always love snuggles
And all of our siblings are nosy
And my owners are muggles
Kiana

Rabbits love to eat grass
And adore drinking water
Although I would rather pass
Just like my friend's daughter

Lovable, cute, fuzzy that's me alright
I may be a little tired bunny
But I sue know how to bite
People say I'm sweet
But my siblins say I am funny
Gemma

There once was a house with alot of cows
They loved the kittens
So, they asked for mittens
They went back to the house
To chase a mouse
With a broom that they hid in their room
Lily

Kittens are so calm
Put them in a cage
They can fit in your palm
They grow as the age

I really love kittens
They're not very big
They can wear mittens
And don't wear a wig
Annabel

There once was a kitten
That had no dad
He always wore mittens
He was always mad

There once was a kitten
He was cosy
He loved mittens
He was very posy

There once was a rabbit
He loved to chew on shoes
He had a bad habit
While watching the evening news
Cam

There were five kittens
That like the mouse
And the mouse likes mittens
And the mouse lived in the biggest house

Once there was a very big kitten
All the other kittens had a very big shoe
While he had the smallest mitten
All his friends had the biggest poo
Kruze

There once was a kitten
Who loves carpets
Tyron bought a mitten
And always goes to markets

There once was a kitten who's friend was Cam
While he was sittin'
He was rejecting Cam for ham
Owen

Clayton's food was never on the plate
His mum could never come home
But he also had a hot date
She always comes to dome.

Mitten is her name
She robs shops for fun
She thinks it is a game
But she's a cute bun
Jai

Kittens are so mellow
They could not be harming
They could be a fellow
Really they're quite charming

Some kittens are lazy
They way they're so drowsy
But others could be crazy
I bet they're going to make me lousy

They're as soft as silk
The way they're so calm
They love drinking milk
They would hate to be alarmed

The bunnies are so sweet
The way they're so innocent
I will allow them to have a treat
I'd hate if they were to be insolent

I don't think they will like Vegemite
Carrots are the way to go
They have such a small bite
They could not be a foe
Willow
